Ranch Horse Pleasure

Purpose

The Purpose of Ranch Horse Pleasure is to promote a well broke, versatile horse for ranch or pleasure riding. The motion, cadence and consistency of this horse will allow it to perform in other events. This is a class that will allow exhibitors of varying degrees and who own various levels/types of horses to enter and be comfortable.

Description of the Class

Horses should work both directions of the rail, reverse to the inside and perform a back. Excessive speed or slowness should be penalized in all gaits The judge is required to ask for an extended jog trot one direction and may or may not ask for an extended lope. The horse should show a relaxed appearance with a bright and attentive attitude without showing a dull, sullen lethargic drawn or overly tired attitude. Maximum credit should be given to the horse that demonstrates each gait with a cadence that is free flowing and balanced. The horse should exhibit an attitude that is willing, alert and a pleasure to ride.

Walk

The walk should be a natural free moving stride of reasonable length in keeping with the horse’s conformation. The horse should travel straight forward in a 4 beat cadence with enough rhythm to get from point A to point B in a reasonable amount of time.

Poor walk: uneven pace and no cadence. Has no flow and may appear intimidated or appear to march.

Average Walk: has free moving, four-beat gait, level top-line and is relaxed.

Good Walk: has a free moving, four-beat gait, level top-line and relaxed, bright and attentive.

Jog Trot

The jog trot should be very comfortable to ride and always performed as a consistent, two-beat diagonal gait. The horse's motions should seem effortless. The jog trot should be shown at a moderate speed and void of peggy short-strided motion. The extension of the jog is required one direction.

Unacceptable Jog Trot: cannot perform a two-beat gait and has no flow or balance in the motion.

Poor Jog Trot: hesitates motion. Does not keep even and balanced motion or has negative characteristics such as walking behind, dragging rear toes or taking uneven length of stride with front and rear legs.

Good Jog Trot: is comfortable to ride while having a consistent two-beat gait. The horse guides well and appears to be relaxed.

Excellent Jog Trot: effortless and very efficient motion. He has a bright and alert expression and exhibits more lift and self-carriage, shows confidence, yet soft with its motion while being balanced and under control.

Extended Trot

Poor Extended Trot: never lengthens stride and may appear to be rough to ride.

Average Extended Trot: moves up in its pace and appears to be smooth to ride.

Excellent Extended Trot: has obvious lengthening of stride with a slight increase in pace while exerting less effort and appears to be smooth to ride.

Lope

The lope should be performed with a consistent, clean, balanced three-beat gait. The horse should have a pleasant expression and be responsible to its rider and may be shown with light bit contact. The lope should have adequate cadence to allow the horse to move freely and comfortably as if he was in his natural environment. A hand gallop may be asked for and should be a moderate extension of the lope.

Poor Lope: does not have a three-beat gait. No flow, rhythm or balance.

Average Lope: has a true three-beat gait. He guides well and has a relaxed appearance.

Good Lope: has more cadence and a free flowing stride, a strong but smooth motion from behind. Steady top line, relaxed appearance and is responsive to rider's aids. He appears to be comfortable to ride.

Excellent Lope: has natural engagement with rhythm and cadence, is relaxed yet alert and confident. This free flowing motion will allow him to excel in many different areas.

Back up

Poor Back-up: is resistant and heavy in front. May gap mouth and throw his head or back crooked.

Average Back-up: backs straight and quietly with light contact and without hesitation.

Good Back-up: displays balance and smooth flowing movements. The horse will back straight with light contact, without gapping his mouth and without hesitation.
